

Schedule/Extra Credit/Presentation

This class will present a picture of Elizabeth based on the perspective of different Elizabethans on 15 April. I am asking each of you to pick an Elizabethan to research (Dictionary of National Biography will be an excellent place to start), and find a distinct (and perhaps exciting, paradoxical, or even unflattering) image of the monarch to present (3-5 minutes each) on that date. As not everyone can present in an hour, I am asking that the others (we will decide this in a few weeks) prepare a list of quotes and descriptions of Elizabeth, the Elizabethan Court, late-sixteenth century London, etc., that we can provide as a handout and overhead presentation while the others are presenting (obviously, we will need these with proper citations). I think what might be interesting, is if we attempt a revisionist (say Dissing Elizabeth style?) approach to the age.

Some of you have been doing perhaps not as well as you would wish on the assignments. Here is an opportunity. The following are some of the Elizabethan presentations over the next month. For each one you attend and write a one paragraph (120+ words) double-spaced report, I will raise your lowest grade 2/3 of a grade (thus, if you received a "C" the new grade would be "B-"). The next report would apply to the then lowest grade, etc. Two events (one is ours!) are required, but you may do an extra-credit report on Levin/Bucholz as well.
