Assignment 5. The Index. Using The American Historical Association's Guide to Historical Literature, 3rd ed. (2-3 works); and Royal Historical Society's Annual Bibliography of British and Irish History <<http://www.rhs.ac.uk/bibl/>> or Historical Abstracts (9-10 works) <http://serials.abc-clio.com/active/start?_appname=serials&initialdb=HA>, draw up a bibliography of at least 12 works on a specific subject (use your context sheet and your readings so far to draw up a list of terms related a topic you wish to pursue for your research) and write a paragraph on what has and has not been covered on this subject recently. Due Feb. 17.

Norton, Mary Beth, gen. ed. The American Historical Association's Guide to Historical Literature, 3rd ed. New York: Oxford University Press, 1995. [especially, secs. 23 "British Isles, 1450-1800" and 39 "Colonial North America"] [RefZ6201.A551995v.1, and a copy]

Royal Historical Society. Annual Bibliography of British and Irish History (various pubs., annually 1976-present), covers publications from 1995 to last year. [RefZ2016.A551994] –British history divided chronologically (e.g. 1714-1815) and then topically (e.g. economic, social, naval). There are author, personal name, place, and subject indexes in the back.

Note:

Citing online sources (note OED is a dictionary, just cite “kingdom,” OED):

Guideline is Marius and Page, p. 189
