

7.6.1. Presupposition Problems

For each of the following sentences, state the presupposition(s) of that sentence.

1. It was Neko who insulted the president of the Surf Club.
2. If there are ripped-up lottery tickets in the trash, then Elvis hasn't stopped gambling.
3. If the price of motorcycles has gone up, then Ace regrets selling his.
4. Rex didn't realize that the final is in two days.
5. What Neko said to the president of the Surf Club caused an uproar.
6. Trixie's not sure if Elvis still gambles on Friday nights.
7. Jack hid his sandwich because he didn't want Suki to eat it.
8. Have you stopped cheating on the quizzes?
9. Apologize to the president of the Surf Club!
10. Why did you cheat on the quizzes?
11. Maybe what Suki has in the bag is sushi.
12. It's certain that Elvis still gambles on Friday nights.